Élise LeBlanc (They/Them) channels the spirit of classic country, Appalachia and Texas swing, spinning stories of queer love, longing, and the wild west. With heart-rending vocals, timeless twang, and a string band that swings hard, this songwriter delivers two-steppin' swagger with front porch soul.

Elise's 2024 record "The Fiddle & The Fire" was produced by Leeroy Stagger (Whose portfolio includes Corb Lund), listed in the top 10 "Best Country Records on Bandcamp" review, and featured on CBC Radio and Country Queer. Record #3 is currently in the mixing stage, and their first single off the record "Lavender Honey" was just released on October 2, 2026 and is already making waves.

Over the past decade, Elise has toured extensively across Canada and internationally. They've showcased at major conferences, and have recently been a mainstage performer at prominent BC festivals including Mission Folk Festival and Cowichan Bluegrass Festival.
